Niasha Abaglo-Grant

949 E Edison St. Tucson Arizona, 85719
Phone: (520)-312-8737 E-Mail: niashagrant11@gmail.com

Objective

Secure an entry-level software position, which will afford me opportunities to learn more about and grow my skills in web development and software operations.

Education

University of Arizona Coding Boot Camp – Full Stack Developer   January 2020

Focusing on becoming a Full Stack Developer

University of Arizona   December 2016

Awarded Bachelors in Science Degree in Microbiology. Also awarded Dean's Honorable Mention certificate.

Experience

Bodycentralprinting.com // Intern Developer   May 2019 - June 2019

- Developing a website that will allow client to dynamically design and order products through automated portal instead of using paper.

- Developing front-end web application using HTML/CSS and JavaScript.

- Working with senior-level developers/mentors on development projects for the website throughout the various phases of the project life cycle.

Charro Del Rey // Server & Turn-key Manager in Training   January 2019 - Present

- Focused on guest experience with ability to successfully manage multiple tasks with competing priorities. Able to promote and sell products and services to guests while working in a fast paced environment.

- Maturity and leadership has resulted in quickly being trusted to train others and assign them tasks. Trusted with financial/cash flow responsibilities and implementing projects, which increased revenue to employer.

Fishkind, Bakewell, Maltzman, Hunter & Associates Eye Care // Technician   October 2017 - Dec 2018

- Worked in a team environment and completed individual projects in a challenging work place while mastering new skills.

- An unwavering commitment to customer service, with the ability to build productive relationships, resolve complex issues and win customer loyalty.

Other Restaurant Jobs   Summer 2011 - Dec 2018

Skills

Experience with: HTML, CSS, JavaScript, Bootstrap, API